The screenshot shows the Adobe Creative Cloud desktop application interface. The browser address bar displays `adobe.com/apps/all/desktop`. The Adobe logo is in the top left, and a search bar is in the top center. A left sidebar contains navigation options: Home, Apps, Updates, Featured (Adobe Express, Adobe Firefly), Categories (Photo, Firefly and Generative AI, Graphic design, Video, Illustration, 3D and AR, Acrobat and PDF), and Resource Links (Stock, Fonts, Tutorials, Portfolio, Behance, Support Community). The main content area is titled "All apps" and includes tabs for Desktop, Mobile, and Web. It features several promotional cards: "Creative Cloud All Apps" with a "Choose plan" button, "Adobe Stock" with "Search Stock" and "Free trial" buttons, "Available in your plan" section with "Creative Cloud", "Bridge", and "Photoshop Express" cards, and "Apps to try" section with "Photoshop", "Illustrator", "Acrobat", and "InDesign" cards. Each card includes a brief description and a "Download", "Try", or "Buy" button.
